2. How would you describe your school's ethos and values? *

We pride ourselves on being friendly and professional. We are like a family and support all of our students as well as promoting a non-competitive attitude towards other local dance schools. We welcome all and pride ourselves on catering to the student who wants to dance seriously and also the once-a-week child who just comes for some social interaction. Our recent graduates described us as an escape and a safe place.

3. How do you support both recreational and aspiring professional students? *

We have performance Troupes and Elite Training options for students who want to be training at a higher level. We promote associate programmes and auditions to these students. For recreational once a week students we have fun classes where we still aim to increase technique and knowledge but in a more relaxed casual atmosphere.

4. What does safe guarding and student wellbeing look like in practice at your school? *

Each student is valued and monitored for signs of safe guarding concerns or even smaller emotional struggles. Our students know we are a safe space where they can approach teachers. We care strongly about each student as an individual.

5. Why do you believe your school deserves this award? *

Our school is going from strength to strength and prides itself on the warm welcoming environment we have built which enables dancers to thrive and feel comfortable and welcome no matter what their intention is in terms of dance.
